

Login Page

- the name of the company/website
- representing picture and header text of the company
- call to action button that opens the log-in/sign-in form page
- centered log-in sign-in form page with navigation bar at the top of the page

Dashboard/Main Page

Navigation menu

in static, fixed position

- Button on the left-hand side for adding a new user that opens a new user login form as a modal at the center of the page
- Toggle button to hide/show disabled users
- Name and profile picture information on the right hand side of the top navigation bar

Sidebar menu

opens when hovered or clicked, all pages use the same css grid layout with rows and columns with items aligned in the center of the page home/main page(user management screen), settings page,

help page including FAQ and a “contact us” form import/export,
trash,
previous user tables page, log-out

New user login/add form

- Vertically placed (using css grid or flexbox) Input fields to gather: Username, Display Name, Phone, Email, User Roles (dropdown menu to specify user roles: Guest Admin Super Admin users) --> color codes used for each of them for better classification

Users Table

only having 8-12 rows per page for easier navigation

- Filtering features for data organization such as filtering to only get the Guest users or to sort by letter.
- Search button to find a specific user from the table
- Button for removing the user
- Button to edit information of the user